!!!PLEASE BE AWARE!!!

A scam has been reported in Devon and Cornwall area:

A caller on Radio Cornwall had been contacted by someone claiming to be from NHS Brexit Team, stating that medicines and prescriptions will have to be paid for in advance due to supply issues in Europe. She was asked for her bank details at which point she terminated the call.

Please remember, usual security protocols should apply when dealing with telephone calls: confirm who you are talking to, Police and Banks do not ask for security details via a phone call, if in doubt don't give out.

Yesterday saw the launch of Every Mind Matters, the first national NHS mental health campaign for over 18 year olds.
